Provided that nothing in sub-clause (b) shall prevent the Lokayukta or a Member from conducting an investigation if he is satisfied that such person could not or cannot, for sufficient cause, have recourse to a remedy referred to in the aforesaid sub-clause.

(2) The Lokayukta or a Member shall not investigate any action, -

- (a) in respect of which a formal and public inquiry has been ordered under the Public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850 (Central Act 37 of 1850), by the Government of India or by the State Government; or
- (b) in respect of a matter which has been referred for inquiry to a Commission of Inquiry under the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 (Central Act 60 of 1952), by the Government of India or by the State Government.

(3) The Lokayukta or a Member shall not investigate any complaint which is excluded from his jurisdiction by virtue of a notification issued under section 22.

(4) The Lokayukta or a Member shall not investigate any complaint involving an allegation, if the complaint is made after the expiry of ten years from the date on which the action complained against is alleged to have taken place:

Provisions relating to complaints.

12. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a complaint may be made under this Act to the Lokayukta or a Member, in the case of an allegation, by any person other than a public servant:

Provided that, where the person aggrieved is unable to act for himself, the complaint may be made by any person who in law represents his estate or, as the case may be, by any person who is authorised by him in this behalf.

(2) Every complaint shall be accompanied by the complainant's own affidavit in support thereof and the same shall be verified before a Magistrate of First Class together with all documents in his possession pertaining to the accusation.

(3) Every affidavit under this section as well as all annexures thereto shall be verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the verification of pleadings and affidavits respectively.

(4) Not less than three copies of the complaint as well as each of its annexures shall be submitted by the complainant.

(5) A complaint which does not comply with any of the foregoing provisions shall not be entertained.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) to (5), or in any other enactment, any letter written to the Lokayukta or Member by a person in police custody, or in a gaol or in any asylum or other place for insane persons, shall be forwarded to the addressee unopened and without delay by the police officer or other persons in charge of such gaol, asylum or other place, and the Lokayukta or Members of Lokayukta, as the case may be, may entertain it and treat it as a complaint, but no action in respect of such complaint shall be taken unless it is accompanied or subsequently supported by an affidavit under sub-sections (2),(3)and (4).

Procedure in respect of investigation.

13. (1) Where the Lokayukta or a Member proposes (after making such preliminary inquiry, if any, as he deems fit) to conduct any investigation under this Act, he-

(a) shall forward a copy of the complaint to the public servant concerned and the competent authority concerned;

(b) shall afford to the public servant concerned an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint; and

(c) may make such orders as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as he deems fit.

(2) Every proceeding of investigation under this Act, shall be conducted in such a manner that the proceedings therein shall not be disclosed to the public or the press whether before, during or after the investigation which shall include the identity of the complainant and the public servant affected:

Provided that all investigations or proceedings under this Act, as a result of any allegation on a complaint against the Chief Minister of State of Meghalaya shall be initiated only after the approval of full bench and all such investigations or proceedings shall be conducted in camera.

(3) Save as aforesaid, the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such as the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, the Member considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) The Lokayukta or a Member may, in his discretion, refuse to investigate or cease to investigate any complaint involving a grievance or, an allegation, if in his opinion-

(a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith; or

- (b) there are no sufficient grounds for investigating or, as the case may be, for continuing the investigation; or
- (c) other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

(5) In any case where the Lokayukta or a Member decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint, he shall record his reasons thereof and reject summarily and communicate the same to the complainant and the public servant concerned.

(6) The conduct of an investigation under this Act in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of any public servant to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.

Evidence.

14. (1) Subject to the procedures laid down in this section, for the purpose of any investigation (including the preliminary inquiry, if any, before such investigation) under this Act, the Lokayukta or a Member may require any public servant or any other person who is in his opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation, to furnish such information or produce any such documents.

(2) For the purpose of any such investigation (including the preliminary enquiry) the Lokayukta or a Member shall have all the powers of a Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely, -

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
- (c) receiving evidence on affidavits;
- (d) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;

(e) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents; and

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) Any proceeding before the Lokayukta or a Member shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act 45 of 1860).

(4) Subject to the provision of sub-section (5), no obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information obtained by or furnished to the State Government or any public servant, whether imposed by any enactment or by any rule of law, shall apply to the disclosure of information for the purpose of any investigation under this Act and the State Government or any public servant shall not be entitled in relation to any such investigation to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by any enactment or by any rule of law in legal proceedings.

(5) No person shall be required or authorised by virtue of this Act to furnish any such information or answer any such question or produce so much of any document-

(a) as might prejudice the security of the State or the defence or international relations of India (including India's relations with the Government of any other country or with any international organisation) or the investigation of detection of crime; or

(b) as might involve the disclosure of proceedings of the Cabinet of State Government or any Committee of that Cabinet and for the purpose of this sub-section a certificate issued by the Chief Secretary certifying that any information, answer or portion of a document is of the nature specified in Clause (a) or Clause (b), shall be binding and conclusive.

(6) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) no person shall be compelled for the purpose of investigation under this Act to give any evidence or produce any document which he could not be compelled to give or produce in proceeding before a Court.

Report of Lokayukta and Member.

15. (1) If, after investigation of any allegation in respect of which a complaint has been made, the Lokayukta or a Member is satisfied that such allegation has been established, the Lokayukta or a Member shall by a report in writing, recommend to the competent authority concerned, if remedy or action is to be taken under the relevant service law or prosecute as per law, if it involves criminal liability.

(2) The competent authority to whom a report is sent under sub-section (1) shall within one month of the expiry of the time specified in the report, intimate or cause to be intimated to the Lokayukta, the action taken for compliance with the report.

(3) If the Lokayukta or the Member is satisfied with the action taken on his recommendations or findings referred to in sub-section (1) he shall close the case under information to the complainant, the public servant and the competent authority concerned, but where he is not so satisfied and if he considers that the case so deserves, he may make a special report upon the case to the Governor and also inform the complainant concerned.

(4) The Lokayukta and the Member shall present annually a consolidated report on the performance of their functions under this Act to the Governor.

(5) On receipt of a special report under sub-section (3) or the annual report under sub-section (4), the Governor shall cause a copy thereof together with an explanatory memorandum to be laid before the State Legislature.

(6) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 13, the Lokayukta may at his discretion make available, from time to time, the substance of cases closed or otherwise disposed of by him or by a Member, which may appear to him to be of general, public, academic or professional interest in such manner and to such persons as he may deem appropriate.

Action in case of false complaint.

16. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, every person who wilfully or maliciously makes any false complaint under this Act shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine.

(2) No Court, except a Court of Session, in the case of a complaint investigated by the Lokayukta or a Court of Magistrate, First Class in the case of a complaint investigated by a Member shall take cognizance of the offence under subsection (1).

(3) No such Court shall take cognizance of such offence as aforesaid except on a complaint in writing made by the Public Prosecutor at the direction of the Lokayukta or a Member as the case may be, and the Court of Session may take cognizance of the offence on such complaint without the case being committed to it, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

(4) Such Court, on conviction of the person making false complaint may award, out of the amount of fine, to the complainant such amount of compensation as it thinks fit.

(5) If at any stage of a proceeding, under this Act before the Lokayukta or a Member it appears to him that any person appearing in such proceeding or any person who filed an affidavit in support of a complaint fabricated false evidence with the intention that such evidence should be used in such proceedings, the Lokayukta or Member, as the case may be, may, if satisfied that it is necessary and expedient in the interest of justice that the person should be tried summarily for giving or fabricating, as the case may be, false evidence, take cognizance of the offence and after giving the offender a reasonable opportunity or showing cause why he should not be punished for such offence, try such offender summarily, so far as may be, in accordance with the procedure prescribed for summary trials under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and sentence him to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or to fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or to both.

(6) When any such offence as is described in Sections 175, 178, 179 or 180 of the Indian Penal Code is committed in the view or presence of the Lokayukta or Member, he may cause the offender to be detained in custody and may, at any time on the same day, take cognizance of the offence and after giving the offender a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why he should not be punished under this section, sentence the offender to simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or to a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or to both.

(7) In every case tried under sub-section (6), the Lokayukta or Member, as the case may be, shall record the facts constituting the offence with the statement (if any) made by the offender as well as the finding and the sentence.

(8) Any person, convicted on trial held under sub-section (5) or sub-section (6) may appeal to the High Court, and the provisions of Chapter XXIX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to appeals under this sub-section, and the Appellate Court may alter or reverse the finding, or reduce or reverse the sentence appealed against.

(9) The provisions of sub-section (5), (6), (7) and (8) shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, but nothing in these sub-sections shall affect the power of the Lokayukta or Member, as the case may be, to proceed under sub-section (3) in respect of any offence, where it does not chose to proceed under sub-section (2), (6) and (7).

(10) Words and expressions used in sub-sections (5) to (9) and not defined in this Act shall have the same meanings as assigned to them in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Staff of Lokayukta and Members.

17. (1) The Lokayukta may appoint officers and other employees to assist the Lokayukta and the Members in the discharge of their functions under this Act:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to prevent any person who holds a post under the Central or the State Government from being appointed on deputation with the consent of that Government.

(2) The number and categories of officers and employees who may be appointed under sub-section (1) and Section 23, their salaries, allowances and other conditions of service and the administrative powers of Lokayukta and Members shall be such as may be determined by general or special order of the State Government made in consultation with the Lokayukta.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Lokayukta or Members may for the purpose of conducting investigations under this Act utilise the services of any officer or investigation agency of the State Government with its concurrence.

Secrecy of information.

18. (1) Any information obtained by Lokayukta or the Members or by their staff in the course of or for the purpose of any investigation under this Act and any evidence recorded or for the purpose of any investigation under this Act and any evidence recorded or collected in connection with such information, shall subject to the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 13, be treated as confidential and notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act 1 of 1872), no court shall be entitled to compel the Lokayukta or Members or any public servant to give evidence relating to such information or produce the evidence so recorded or collected.

(2) Nothing in sub-section(1) shall apply to the disclosure of information or particulars-

- (a) for purposes of the investigation or in any report to be made thereon or for any action of proceedings to be taken on such report; or
- (b) for purposes of any proceedings for an offence under the Official Secrets Act, 1923 (Central Act 19 of 1923), or an offence of giving or fabricating false evidence under the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Central Act 45 of 1860) or for the purposes of any trial of an offence under section 13 or any proceedings under section 16; or
- (c) for such purposes as may be prescribed.

(3) An officer or other authority prescribed in this behalf may give notice in writing to the Lokayukta or Members, as the case may be, with respect to any documents or information specified in the notice or any class of documents or information so specified that in the opinion of the State Government the disclosure of the documents or information or of documents or information of that class would be contrary to provision as laid down in Section 8 of Right to Information Act, 2005.

Intentional insults or interruption to, or bringing into disrepute, Lokayukta Members.

19. (1) Whoever intentionally offers any insult, or causes any interruption to the Lokayukta or Members while the Lokayukta or the Members is conducting any investigation under this Act, shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(2) Whoever, by words spoken or intended to be read, makes or publishes any statement or does any other act, which is calculated to bring the Lokayukta or Members into disrepute, shall on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2) to (6) of section 199 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974), shall apply in relation to an offence under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) as they apply in relation to an offence referred to in the aforesaid Code and prosecution shall be made by the public prosecutor only with the previous sanction-

(a) in the case of an offence against the Lokayukta, of the Lokayukta; and

(b) in the case of an offence against Members, of the Member concerned.

Protection.

20. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Lokayukta or the Members or against any officer, employee, agency or person referred to in section 17 in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

(2) No proceedings of the Lokayukta or the Members shall be held invalid for want of form and except on the ground of jurisdiction, no proceedings or decision of the Lokayukta or the Members shall be liable to be challenged, reviewed, quashed or called in question in any court.

Conferment of additional functions of Lokayukta and Members.

21. (1) The State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette and after consultation with the Lokayukta, confer on the Lokayukta or Members, as the case may be, such additional functions in relation to the eradication of corruption or such other duties as may be specified in the notification.

(2) The State Government may, by order in writing and after consultation with Lokayukta, confer on the Lokayukta or Member such powers of a supervisory nature over agencies, authorities or officers setup, constituted or appointed by the State Government for the eradication of corruption.

(3) The State Government may, by order in writing and subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in the order, require the Lokayukta to investigate any action being an action in respect of which a complaint may be made under this Act, to the Lokayukta or Member and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the Lokayukta shall comply with such order:

Provided that the Lokayukta may entrust investigation of any such action (being action in respect of which a complaint may be made under this Act) to Member.

(4) When any additional functions are conferred on the Lokayukta or Member under sub-section (1) or when the Lokayukta or Member is to investigate any action under sub-section (3), the Lokayukta or Member shall exercise the same powers and discharge the same functions as he would, in the case of any investigation made on a complaint involving an allegation and the provisions of this Act, shall apply accordingly.

Power to exclude complaints against certain classes of public servants.

22. (1) The State Government may in consultation with the Lokayukta and on being satisfied that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest so to do, exclude, by notification in the Official Gazette, complaints involving an allegation against persons belonging to any class of public servants specified in the notification, from the jurisdiction of the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, Member:

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is issued, before the State Legislature.

Investigation and Prosecution Wing.

23. (1) The Lokayukta shall, by notification, constitute a prosecution wing for the purposes of prosecution under this Act.

(2) The Lokayukta shall, by notification, constitute a investigation wing for the purposes of investigation under this Act

Provided that till such time the investigation and prosecution wings as referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) are constituted by the Lokayukta, the State Government shall make available such number of Public Prosecutors and other officers and staff for investigation and conducting prosecution under this Act.

(3) The officers of the investigation wing under this Act shall have the powers of a Police Officer as provided under the relevant provisions of Cr.P.C. 1973.

Attachment or confiscation of property.

24. (1) Where the Lokayukta or any investigation officer authorised by it in this behalf, has reason to believe, the reason for such belief to be recorded in writing, on the basis of material in his possession, that -

(a) any person is in possession of any proceeds of corruption;

(b) such person is accused of having committed an offence relating to corruption; and

(c) such proceeds of offence are likely to be concealed, transferred or dealt with in any manner which may result in frustrating any proceedings relating to confiscation of such proceeds of offence, he may, by order in writing, provisionally attach such property for a period not exceeding ninety days from the date of the order.

(2) The Lokayukta shall, immediately after attachment under sub-section (1), forward a copy of the order, along with the material in his possession, referred to in that sub-section, to the competent Court, in a sealed envelope, in the manner as may be prescribed and such Court may extend the order of attachment and keep such material for such period as the Court may deem fit.

(3) Every order of attachment made under sub-section (1) shall cease to have effect after the expiry of the period specified in that sub-section or after the expiry of the period as directed by the Special Court under sub-section (2).

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent the person interested in the enjoyment of the immovable property attached under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), from such enjoyment.

Explanation - For the purposes of this sub-section, "person interested", in relation to any immovable property, includes all persons claiming or entitled to claim any interest in the property.

(5) The Lokayukta, when it provisionally attaches any property under sub-section (1) shall, within a period of thirty days of such attachment, direct its prosecution wing to file an application stating the facts of such attachment before the competent Court and make a prayer for confirmation of attachment of the property till completion of the proceedings against the public servant in the competent Court.

(6) The competent Court may, if it is of the opinion that the property provisionally attached had been acquired through corrupt means, make an order for confirmation of attachment of such property till the completion of the proceedings against the public servant in the competent court.

(7) If the public servant is subsequently acquitted of the charges framed against him, the property, subject to the orders of the competent Court, shall be restored to the concerned public servant along with benefits from such property as might have accrued during the period of attachment.

(8) If the public servant is subsequently convicted of the charges of corruption, the proceeds relatable to the offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 shall be confiscated and vest in the State Government free from any encumbrance or leasehold interest excluding any debt due to any bank or financial institution.

Explanation - For the purposes of this sub-section, the expressions "bank", "debt" and "financial institution" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clauses (d), (g) and (h) of section 2 of the Recovery of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions, 1993.

(9) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) to (8) of this section, where the competent Court, on the basis of prima facie evidence, has reason to believe or is satisfied that the assets, proceeds, receipts and benefits, by whatever name called, have arisen or procured by means of corruption by the public servant, it may authorise the confiscation of such assets, proceeds, receipts and benefits till his acquittal.

(10) Where an order of confiscation made under sub-section (9) is modified or annulled by the High Court or where the public servant is acquitted by the Special Court, the assets, proceeds, receipts and benefits, confiscated under sub-section (9) shall be returned to such public servant, and in case it is not possible for any reason to return the assets, proceeds, receipts and benefits, such public servant shall be paid the price thereof including the money so confiscated with the interest at the rate of five percent per annum thereon calculated from the date of confiscation.

| Power to delegate | 25. The Lokayukta or Member may, by a general or special order in writing direct that any powers conferred or duties imposed on him by or under this Act (except the powers to make reports to the Governor under section 15) may also exercise or discharge by such of the officers, employees or agencies referred to in section 17, as may be specified in the order. |
| Annual disclosure of assets by public servant. | 26. Every public servant is to declare their assets annually in such forms as may be prescribed and such declaration shall be submitted to their respective Competent Authority. |
| Appeal to the High Court. | 27. Any public servant aggrieved by the order passed by the Lokayukta or Members, may appeal to the concerned High Court within a period of one month from the date of such order. |
| Power to make Rules. | 28. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act. |

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before the State Legislature of Meghalaya.

Power to make Regulations.

29. (1) The Lokayukta may, with approval of the State Government, make regulations for the purpose of regulating the functions and other required matters of his office.

(2) Every regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the State Legislature of Meghalaya.

Removal of doubts.

30. For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the Lokayukta and Member of Lokayukta to investigate into any allegation against-

- (a) the Chief Justice or any Judge of the High Court;
- (b) officers and staff of the High Court;
- (c) Members of the Meghalaya Judicial Service;
- (d) the Chairman or any member of the Meghalaya Public Service Commission;
- (e) the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker of the Meghalaya Legislative Assembly with respect to their actions inside the House only;
- (f) any matter related to Policy formulation by the State Government and any action taken in pursuance of policies so framed; and
- (g) grade IV Government employee and employee below grade IV.

Repeal.

31. The Meghalaya Lokayukta and Up-Lokayukta Act, 2000 (Act 1 of 2002) is hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE[See section 3(3) and (5)]

I, having been appointed Lokayukta/Member of the Lokayukta do swear in the name of God/Solemnly affirm that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of India as by law established that I will duly and faithfully and to the best of my ability, knowledge and judgement perform the duties of my office without fear or favour, affection or ill-will.

STATEMENT OF OBJECT AND REASONS

In order to make the institution of Lokayukta more effective in the State, the Government has decided to make a new law by repealing the Meghalaya Lokayukta and Up-Lokayuktas Act, 2000 (Act 1 of 2000). In the new Act, the Lokayukta shall have a Chairperson and two Members to be appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Selection Committee. The Lokayukta and Members may enquire, investigate, hear, make findings, submit report, initiate prosecution and recommend for taking action into the matters of corruption by Public Servants appointed to public service or posts in connection with the affairs of the State Government of Meghalaya.

Hence the Bill.

Dr. MUKUL SANGMA,
Chief Minister

H. MYLLIEMNGAP,
Secretary,
Meghalaya Legislative Assembly

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill will involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State for establishment of the office, salary of Lokayukta and Members, Officers and staff, vehicles and other infrastructures.

MEMORANDUM OF DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 28 empowers the State Government to make rules for carrying out the purpose of the enactment and Clause 29 empowers the Lokayukta to make Regulations with the approval of the State Government.

The delegations are of normal character.
